The Pennsylvania Baptist Convention held its thirty-ninth auniversary in the First Baptist Church in Eric, during the days of Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, October 23, 24, and 25. This is mainly a missionary body, expending its funds in the assistance of feeble churches throughout the State. Its annual sessions are constituted of delegates from the several churches and local associations which contribute to its funds.

The Baptist General State Association of Illinois flatished its session October 22, after holding one of its anniversary meetings in New York. There was a large attendance, including all the prominent clergy, and many members of that denomination throughout the State.

-The Baptist churches in Newark are undergoing great changes from loss of pastors and the up-town tendency of population. Sixth Street Church, Laight Street, Macdougal Street, and Amity Street Churches are without pastors, The New Haven Association, which met at Meriden recently, reported the addition of two hundred members to their Churches.

Congregational.

—At a district meeting of the Surrey Congregational Union, at Egham, September 26, a vote was passed, on the motion of the venerable Benaum Scott, Esq., F. R. A. S., Chamberlain of London, seconded by J. Remington Mills, Esq., M. P., 'That the ensuing year (A. D. 1867) being the three hundredth anniversary of the constitution (A. D. 1867) of Richard Fitz's church in the Bridewell of the city of London—the first church of the Congregational London—the first church of the Congregational order at the English Reformation of which we have information,—presents an occasion for celebrating the Tercentenary of English Congregationalism; and that the 20th of June, 1867, and the Sunday next following thereto, be particularly devoted to the proposed object, the company of Richard Fitz, the proto-martyr of English Congregationalism, having been committed to the Bridewell on the 20th of June, 1567."

—Attending on the Church Congress in England were three American Bishops of the Episcopal Church—Pennsylvania, North Carolina, and Illinois—who were received with great cordiality. At one of the meetings the Bishop gof Pennsylvania spoke, according to the report, "without the slightest trace of Americanism, in manner or accent." The American Bishops, we are also told, are much more important personages than their English brethren, being Bishops not of one or a few counties, but of entire sovereign States.

The Episcopal Church is proposing in Michigan.

chine sovereign States.

The Episcopal Church is prospering in Michigan. When the Bishop began his work in 1836, Detroit had five members gathered in the Indiana Council House. Now in Detroit are five churches, two chapels, three rectories, 4177 communicants, 1660 Sunday Schoot scholars, and 197 teachers; while the Diocese of Michigan has sixty-eight parishes and sixty-four clergy, one of whom (Dr. Armitage) has recently been elected a Bishop. So in Wisconsin, where in 1836 was one missionary and three stations, are now nearly seventy clergy.

-At a stated meeting of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, George T. Kaye, George H. Kirkland, and V. Hummel Berghaus were recommended as candidates for Holy Orders, and Jeremiah Hancler was recommended for Peacon's Orders; Reginald H. Hone applied to be recommended as a candidate for Holy Orders, and Gregory Bedell Keene was recommended for Deacon's Orders. —On Monday, October 29, the proceedings in commemoration of the dedication of St. Paul's church, New York, one hundred years ago, were continued. The morning exercises consisted of an historical address by the Rector, the Rev. Morgan Dix, D. D. The seamon was entitled "History of St. Paul's Church and Reminiscences of the Past."

The Congregation of the Church of St. Matthias, worshipping at Nineteenth and Wal-lace streets, have determined to erect a handsome church, commencing early in the spring. The present edifice is too small to accommodate those who desire pews. The Rev. R. G. Chase is the rector.

—The special meeting of Synod was held in Toronto on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, September 19, 20, and 21, the Bishop of the Diocese presiding. On the ninth baliot the venerable Alexander N. Bethume, Archdeacon of Toronto and Rector of Cobourg, was duly elected Coadjutor Bishop.

E-The Episcopal fund of the Diocese of Rhode Island having been sufficiently increased to furnish an endowment for the Bishopric, the Right Rev. Thomas M. Clark has resigned the rectorship of the church in Providence which he has hitherto served.

P—The Protestant [Episcopal Mission Church, in Reed street, above Second, is to be extended and made a self-sustaining church as soon as possible. At present there are accommodations for two hundred persons.

The usual quarterly meeting of South Central Convocation was held in All Saints' Church, Pa-radise, R. I., commencing Tuesday, October 9. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather the services were quite interesting.

- "Crozierville, Liberia, is a new settlement of Barbadians, composed mostly of our own communion and Wesleyans." So writes a cor-respondent of the Church in Liberia.

-Rev. Henry A. Meely, of New York, was elected Bishop of Maine at a special Diocesan Convention, on last Tuesday evening.

-On Tuesday afternoon, October 30, the cere-Jewish Temple of Emanu-el, in Fifth avenue and Forty-third street, New York, took place. There was a very large attendance to view the proceedings, composed in large part of ladies. The new editics is to be one of the finest in the city, the cost being about $500,000. The dimensions are as follows: Frontage on Fifth. the cost being about $500,000. The dimensions are as follows: Frontage on Fifth avenue, 104 feet; depth on Forty-third street, 184 feet. The interior will measure in length 164 feet; in breadth 90 feet; the navee 160 feet in length, 67 feet in height, and 34 feet in width. The transept will measure 94 by 34 feet, and the sanctuary sept will men

Lutherau.

-The Pittsburg Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church have resolved to accept the invitation of the Pennsylvania Synod to send delegates to a general convention, whose object shall be the formation of a new General Synod. Colonel George W. Frederick and Mr. H. E. Jacobs, both of Gettysburg, were licensed to preach for one year by the Synod, and Rev. J. B. Brackenridge was ordained.

—At a recent meeting of the Melaucthon Synon the following resolution was adopted:—Resolved, That we deem it necessary to establish, under the guardianship of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, as institution for the education of colored young men for the Gospel ministry, to be called the Evangelical Lutheran African Training School.

-The latest statistics of the Lutheran Church are as follows:—1644 ministers; 2915 congregations; and 323,825 communicants.

-Among the centenary collections in New York city, on the 14th inst., the following are reported:

St. Paul's, $50,000, exclusive of the contributions of Daniel Drow, and the sums pledged by Messrs. Place and Sparkman for a echool enterprise; Thirtieth Street, $2000, in addition to $12,000 previously pledged; Fourth

THE RELIGIOUS WORLD

We present our readers with the usual compendium of religious news of the week:—

Baptist.

—At the present time there are eight distinct branches of Methodism, besides the Methodist Episcopal Church. All of these left the parent body except the Primitives, who descended from the Primitives of England, and the Evangelical Methodists, who originated with Jacob Albright, among the Germans in the West. All these branches are about equal in number to the parent body. The latter in its ministry numbers 16,540, and the former 13,656, making the total number of Methodist ministers 30,196.

-Mrs. James Long, Treasurer of the Fair to aid in purchasing a home for the aged and indrm members of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Philadelphia, acknowledges the receipt of $21,613-66, being the proceeds from the great first held less time.

-Two hundred and eighty persons have been converted in the Siloam M. E. Church, Otis street, since the 13th of last August. The meetings commenced at that time continue every evening. The congregation think of erecting a new church editice.

—The Preachers' Meeting passed resolutions favoring the organization of a Young Men's Christian Association in each Methodist church in this city, and approving the call for a convention of the Methodist young men.

-A centenary meeting of the Methodist Eplacopal Church was held in the "Foundry Church" in New York, under the direction of the Pastor, Rev. B. Peyton Brown. There were many interesting addresses delivered.

-The debt of Mount Zion M. E. Church, Manayunk, Rev. C. Cooke, pastor, amounting to $2500, has been paid off. The sum was collected in one day. -A revival is in progress at the Quakertown Methodist Church, New Jersey, Rev. M. F.

Swein, pastor.

Presbyterian. The death of the late Rev. Dr. Edgar, of Belfast, so well known to Americans, created a vacancy in the theological protessorship of the Irish Presbyterian Church. An extra meeting of the General Assembly became necessary, to elect a new professor of theology. After a pretty full canvass it became apparent that the most prominent candidate would have table by prominent candidate would inevitably be the Rev. Dr. Watts, a gentleman of American education and experience, who had been many years a successful pastor in Pailadelphia.

a successful pastor in Philadelphia.

—The following resolution was adopted at the last meeting of the Synod of Philadelphia;—

Resolved, That in the action of the last General Assembly at St. Louis, in the case of the Louisville Presbytery, and the signers of the declaration and testimony, this Synod recognizes an honest and enlightened zeal for the purity of our beloved Church, and also their full constitutional right to make such decision; and we trust and believe that it will ultimately appear hea thiul and happy in its results."

The Synod of Kentucky in session at Hen-

The Synod of Kentucky, in session at Henderson last week, divided, ninety-nine members sustaining the Louisville Presbytery and fifty-seven indersing the General Assembly. The difference relates to secession and slavery. The Courts must now decide which is the true Synod. The Presbyterian Synod of West Pennsylvania have adopted a resolution pledging themselves to "Home Missions," and also to supply and support a missionary, whose time is to be given principally to the "oil regions."

-The San Francisco daily prayer-meeting continues to attract large congregations, and the interest was never more marked than now.

Roman Catholic. —The Second Pienary Council of Baltimore finished its session on the 21st of October. A sermon was delivered by Archbishop Kenrick, of St. Louis, President Johnson being present. The sermon was upon the words:—"Falth then comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God." 10th chapter, 17th verse, Epistle of St. Paul to the Romans.

Paul to the Romans. —St. Theresa's Church, at Broad and Catharine streets, Rev. Hugh Lane, pastor, is to be greatly improved. The ceiling is to be frescoed in the best style of art, and eight handsome paintings, representing St. Theresa, the Transfiguration, the Agony in the Garden, the Immaculate Conception, and the Four Evangelists, are to be executed. Full-length figures of the Apostles are to be painted on the walls.

Aposties are to be painted on the walls.

—The Catholic church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, at Doylestown, Pa., has been greatly improved. A beautiful painting of the Assumption has been placed on the ceiling; there is an altar-piece representing the crucifixion, and on either side of the sanctuary are tall-length pictures of St. Peter and St. Paul.

Sunday Schools.

—A great occasion has just closed at Utica. It was the commemoration services of the first Sabbath school planting in this city, now so full of Sunday school gardens, and so rich in the sweet fruits and flowers they have yielded to careful cultivation. The celebration was the semi-centennial of Dr. Fowler's Sabbath School, the First Presbyterian, of Utica. The services began in the City Hall, on Saturday evening, Cotober 20, and were appropriately continued through the following day, the Sabbath, in Dr. Fowler's Church, closing with a social reunion at the pastor's residence on Monday evening.

—An important meeting in behalf o' the Bapat the pastor's residence on Monday evening.

—An important meeting in behalf o' the Baptist Sunday Schools of Philadelphia was held in the Tabernacle Church, October 15, to form an organization of the schools of the city for the increase of their efficiency and the promotion of their general interests. A committee of five was appointed to prepare a form of constitution and by laws, and to report at an adjourned meeting to be held on Monday, November 19.

—The annual meeting of the Essex County Sunday School Convention, held in the First Presbyterian Church, in Orange, on the afternoon and evening of Wednesday, the 17th October, was an occasion of much interest. The representation of the several schools of the county was large.

The minth Annual Convention of the New Jersey State Sunday School Association is to be held at Newark, in the First Presbyterian Church, beginning on Wednesday, November 14, at 2 o'clock P. M., and continuing through Thursday and Friday, the 15th and 16th.
